The Constitution and Bylaws of the Libertarian Party of Mecklenburg County, NC

Article I: Name
The name of this organization shall be the Libertarian Party of Mecklenburg County (LPMec if abbreviated), hereinafter referred to as the Party.

Article II: Purpose
The purpose of the Party is to conduct the following activities:
I. Promoting and disseminating libertarian ideas and ideals.
II. Nominating and supporting candidates for municipal and county wide political offices.
III. Supporting local, state, and national Libertarian candidates.
IV. Promoting fellowship and community among libertarian individuals.

Article III: Executive Committee

Section I:
There shall be five members of the Executive Committee, including the Chairperson (hereinafter referred to as the Chair), the Treasurer, the Recording Secretary (hereinafter referred to as the Secretary), and two “At-Large” members.

Section II:
The term of the Executive Committee, including At-Large members shall expire two years after the end of the County Convention at which they were elected, or at the conclusion of the second year’s convention (whichever is later).

Section III:
The Executive Committee may appoint new members if vacancies or suspensions occur. Newly appointed members shall complete the term of the positions vacated until the next County Convention. Any member of the EC may make such a motion to fill a vacant position.

Section IV:
All members of the Executive Committee must be a resident of Mecklenburg County and a member of the Party, as enumerated in Article VIII.

Section V:
A majority of the filled positions on the Executive Committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings. If a quorum cannot be achieved during a meeting, no business which may require a vote shall be considered that meeting. The Chair may call for another meeting either in person or remotely to attain quorum for matters requiring a majority vote by the Executive Committee.

Section VI:
Any member of the Executive Committee who fails to attend three consecutive meetings, either in person or via proxy, of the Committee, or who similarly fails to attend five meetings of the Committee in the period between Conventions, may be considered to have resigned from the Committee, pending a motion and majority vote of the Executive Committee. If so moved and passed, the position shall be declared vacant. The vacant position may then be filled per Article III, Section III.

Article IV: Officers

Section I:
The officers of the Party shall consist of a Chairperson, a Recording Secretary, and a Treasurer. Election of officers will take place biennially at the County Convention. Officers shall take office immediately upon the close of the Convention. These positions are required and must be filled.

Section II:
No Officer position may be combined with any other Officer position.

Section III:
The Chair shall be the Chief Executive Officer of the Party and shall preside at all Party Conventions and at all meetings of the Executive Committee at which the Chair is present., unless otherwise delegated by the chair.

Section IV:
The Secretary shall be the recording officer of the Party.

Section V:
The Treasurer shall be responsible for the monetary duties of the party as enumerated in Article X, Section III.
The Constitution and Bylaws of the Libertarian Party of Mecklenburg County, NC

Article V: Parliamentary Authority

Section I:
Democratic Rules of Order 10th edition (hereinafter DRO) shall be the parliamentary authority for all matters of procedure not specifically covered by these Bylaws. The Executive Committee may choose to use alternate parliamentary procedures if approved of by majority vote. Such vote would be binding only for the specific meeting or convention at which the vote was taken.

Article VI: Committees

Section I:
There shall be committees appointed by the Chair, as the Executive Committee deems appropriate via majority vote. Working Committees shall exist at the pleasure of the Executive Committee. Members of the Executive Committee may serve on Working Committees and may hold a leadership position on a working committee.

Section II:
The Executive Committee will select one member of a Working Committee to act as the Chairperson of that specific committee by majority vote.

Article VII: Meetings

Section I, Notification:
The times and places of Executive Committee meetings shall be determined by, majority vote of the Executive Committee, by call of the Chair, or by written request of at least one-third (1/3) of the Executive Committee. A written notice or communication of the time and place of all meetings shall be communicated to each member of the Executive Committee not less than five calendar days prior to the meeting. Communications shall consist of any mail system, including facsimile, and electronic system for which such procedures have been established, or such systems, whether physical or electronic, as deemed appropriate by a majority vote of the Executive Committee.

Section II, Transaction of Official Business:
The Executive Committee may transact business remotely. An Executive Committee member may call a vote on any question submitted by the Chair, or by at least one-fifth (1/5) of the members of the Executive Committee or Working Committee. Five calendar days shall be allowed for the return of votes to the Party Secretary. The Secretary shall establish procedures for identifying voters in remote ballots and may accept votes through any mail system, including facsimile and electronic communications, for which such procedures have been established. If, at the expiration of the application period a quorum of the Executive Committee has not returned its votes, the measure being voted upon shall be deemed to have failed. In all other cases a majority of the votes required shall carry the measure except where a higher vote is required by the Bylaws. A measure that has failed to be approved by remote communications cannot then be resubmitted under these provisions but can only be reconsidered at a regular meeting of the Executive Committee. The Secretary must preserve all such votes until the next meeting of the Executive Committee, at which meeting the Executive Committee shall order the disposition of the votes.
